DESCRIPTION

Built in 1991 in the style of a small Bressane farmhouse this property will seduce you with its pastoral charm. As you enter by the front door you arrive in the living-dining area where there is a feeling of both space and light. A glass panelled back door to the terrace and garden and the open style kitchen both allow light to flood in from all sides. In the living area is a lovely brick built fireplace with a wooden beam mantlepiece. Imagine sitting around a cosy fire during the cooler months with a nice warm drink. The kitchen is fully equipped with plenty of storage space and there is an area for a breakfast table, or a workstation if you choose to work from home. The understairs cupboard will accommodate any extra storage needs. There are two decent sized bedrooms one with a view to the front of the cottage and the fields beyond and the other affording extended views to the back of the property and further afield. A bathroom with a bath, over bath shower, sink and WC. Upstairs there is a mezzanine area which could have a variety of uses and a large storage cupboard. Outside to the back of the property is a lovely, covered terrace, a nice place to sit shaded from the sunshine on those long hot summer days. The terrace leads to the cellar access. ...
