IN BRIEF

Located in the centre of Frontenex this ancient stone farm, in sound structural condition with around 6000m2 of land, can be converted in to 650m2 of two storey apartments with a gated entrance for gardens and parking. The roof is in very good condition with all the original beams and was recovered with roofing felt and steel roofing sheet in the recent past. The walls have plentiful openings already in place to add windows and balconies with a view of the chateau and the mountains A plot of land roughly 2600m2 located above the farm, with a separate gated entrance, is suitable to build 6 detached houses or a 2 storey apartment building, plus a 7th house built on a 350m2 plot below the farm. Although the land isn't currently constructible, a simple planning request will allow construction due to the close proximity of adjacent dwellings. The council planning...
