NOTES

DESCRIPTION

You enter the house from a grand external stairway into the main floor. Currently on this level there is a lounge with fireplace and exposed beams and a modern kitchen. The hallway is very spacious (15.2m²) and benefits from great ceiling height, and leads to the dining room (could also be a bedroom), bedroom, bathroom and separate WC. Also located in the hallway are two staircases.

One leads upstairs to an office which is wood-panelled and has ample additional storage space in two eaves spaces. This floor could easily be a bedroom with the possibility of creating a shower room in one of the storage spaces, which is located above the bathroom below.

Take the stairs down from the first floor and you have a wonderfully renovated basement level, again with great head height. Here you have two bedrooms, a shower room, additional lounge, utility room and a boiler room. The utility room could easily make an additional kitchen; the current owners have installed an oven power point but it is currently not used. There is a separate access from the garden to this part of the house meaning there is a possibility for using it for holiday rentals if desired. It is also a wonderful spot for guests.

Accessed from the utility room you also have a summer room / garage, ideal use for a potting shed or storing summer furniture. It is large enough to fit a car and could be used...
