DESCRIPTION

Small garden spaces immediately outside are available to residents at this block. Known for its tranquil central parks and green spaces along the river Indre, Châteauroux is a vibrant city with a year-long calendar of cultural festivals ranging from rock and literature to contemporary jazz and folk, the MACH 36 for major events, two cinemas, a media centre and an impressive list of heritage buildings to visit. The city's medieval centre is a short walk with a great choice of restaurants, brasseries, bars, venues and individual shops on the Rue Grande and tucked in streets nearby. The city outskirts offer the major retailers and hypermarkets. Excellent transport links nationally via the A20 and rail. The city's own airport provides further international destinations as well as the airports at Limoges, Tours and Poitiers all 1'15" by car.
