IN BRIEF

Perfect for a gite for the 80th anniversary and beyond. This delightful property with nearly an acre of land in a superb position on the Cotentin peninsula. Situated on a quiet lane on the outskirts of the village of Tribehou, with all amenities nearby. The American D-Day landing beaches are situated close by and the ports of Caen and Cherbourg are within easy reach. The nearby historic town of Carentan has a popular port with a good choice of restaurants plus a train link to Paris and beyond. This is a great property for a permanent residence or holiday rental to provide an income stream. It has a 70 m2 attached barn and developable loft space that could easily double the living area of the property or provide gite income. Additional information and photos along with virtual tour, 2D & 3D images available.
