DESCRIPTION

The house is being sold after 29 years of happy holidays and most of the furnishings and equipment will be available for sale if the the buyer is interested. This is a 'lock up and leave' property with minimal maintenance whilst still within walking distance of green space.

On the ground floor the house comprises a lounge with wood burner, a fitted kitchen/dining room and a WC .

On the first floor is a shower room with a WC and two double bedrooms.

On the second floor is the large master bedroom with an ensuite bathroom with WC.

The house has retained many of the original features including working shutters and traditional window fastenings.

The attached large barn of 55 m² offers space for storage and has connections for washing machine and dryer. This barn offers great potential and could be transformed into additional living space that could more than double the surface of the current house. It would also make a fantastic studio, Gite or B&B.

Outside there is a seating area in front of the house by the river where you can put a table and chairs. There is also a strip of border by the river where the present owners have planted flowering shrubs and created a garden feature. There is a large park within 1 minutes walk of the property with tables and a children's play area at one end.

The village of Parcé-sur-Sarthe offers all the local amenities including a butcher,...
