IN BRIEF

This Charentais style stone three bedroomed house has been renovated to a high standard. The renovation has maintained many of the original features including exposed stone walls, original fireplaces, wooden floors and beams. The kitchen/diner and bathroom are spacious, tasteful and high quality. There are double-glazed windows throughout. There are many outbuildings including a large barn, a garage, a workshop and an open barn. Outside there is a covered patio, garden and vegetable plot. Set in a lovely quiet hamlet with beautiful views there is an opportunity to make further developments or just enjoy the French life in this family home.
