NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The current owners have completed this renovation to an extremely high standard, respecting the property's original features, and creating a warm and comfortable home in the heart of this friendly village.

Downstairs, there are two spacious, bright rooms – one, the living room, with a wonderful chimney and woodburning stove, and the other, the stunning, fully-fitted dining kitchen, has another chimney and woodburner, beams and tomette tiles. Upstairs there are 3 bedrooms and a shower room, and above all this is an expansive loft space, crying out to be converted into one or two further bedrooms subject to planning, with lovely beams, velux windows, a wooden floor and electricity installed.

Outside, there is a vast attached barn, with full-height double doors at the front, and a separate utility room at the back, with shower and toilet. A west-facing patio terrace at the back of the property provides excellent entertaining space, and looks onto a peaceful green area.

This is an ideal permanent home or fantastic holiday retreat or gîte. It is only minutes from the historical village of Sainte-Sévère-sur-Indre, with restaurants, boulangerie, supermarket, post office, hairdresser and schools. Further services at La Châtre are just a 20-minute drive away. This ancient Berry region of central France is a hidden gem, with châteaux, gardens, vineyards and wonderful countryside waiting to be explored.
