DESCRIPTION

This imposing stone house offers approximately 148sqm of living space. The layout is as follows: Front door into entrance hall (9m²) with a door to the left opening into the lounge (34m²) a large light room with original wood flooring and a stone wall feature. To the right a door leads into a large room currently with a dining area (25m²) housing a fireplace with an inset wood burner. The kitchen area (5m²) requires renovation, but the room is a good size and offers great potential to expand or reconfigure. There is currently a wc and wash basin, along with storage space to the rear of this room (4m²). At the end of the entrance hall a staircase leads to the cellar and the boiler room which houses the oil tank and oil fuelled boiler.

Also at the end of the entrance hall a wooden staircase leads to the first floor where you will find four bedrooms and the bathroom. There is original wood flooring throughout this floor. Bedroom one (22m²) with 2 windows and two radiators. Bedroom two (12m²) is accessed through bedroom one and could easily be converted into a dressing room/ensuite bathroom. Bedroom three (22m²) with two windows and two radiators. Bedroom four (13m²) Bathroom (5m²) with bath, shower fitting over bath, washbasin, wc and bidet.

A small flight of stairs leads to the loft area which spans the complete house floor plan. A large garage can be found...
