IN BRIEF

This large friendly French style house is so welcoming that you won't want to leave. It really is what you think of when you imagine a property in the francophone countryside. The current owners have renovated the necessary, most especially the roofs, whilst leaving all the quaintness and ambiance of the house. It really does shout "holidays" You can imagine all four nice sized bedrooms full of family and friends, barbecues on the shaded terrace, games in the garden and escapades to nearby lakes for swimming. There are four nice size bedrooms all with large windows and beautiful wooden beams. The lovely garden is to the front of the house, with a covered terrace and plenty of flowers. The chemin right beside it takes you on a lovely meander through the countryside. And down a flight of steps from this terrace is a lovely flat patch of land,...
