IN BRIEF

In the centre of Maubourguet with all amenities you will find this large 3 bedroom townhouse, enclosed rear garden and garage. This property is ideal for anyone wanting to be in walking distance from all amenities. Set within a courtyard with two other properties this situation is calm and peaceful considering it's town location. The enclosed rear garden has scope to be further developed with landscaping. Maubourguet is a commune in the Haute Pyrenees department of South West France. It benefits from recent renovations to the town centre where a weekly market with local and seasonal produce takes place. The Adour river runs through this pretty town with it's ancient 11th church of Saint-Martin; it was originally part of the Benedictine monastery and is on the pilgrimage route of Saint Jacques de Compostella.
