NOTES

DESCRIPTION

St Nazaire is a thriving town. It houses many of the 37 800+ workers in the 7 400+ local businesses. It is the industrial centre of the Atlantic coast thanks to its port and shipyards, leader in French marine energy & 2nd largest European aeronautical centre. 7 300 + students study here. It also boasts a 13 km seafront with 20 beaches. It is rich in history, having been a German submarine base in WWII. There are museums aplenty for military enthusiasts. Facilities are second to none in terms of shopping centres, hospital, schools, transport links etc & an area of outstanding natural beauty is on the doorstep as it sits nestled between the stunning seascape of the Atlantic coast with its long, sandy beaches and the nature reserves of the Côte d'Amour and Brière National Park.
