DESCRIPTION

Let's cross the entrance gate, and let's discover its particular style, with numerous openings offering a very luminous residence

The entrance hall leads to a beautiful dining room of 20m², with a functional fireplace, oak herringbone parquet floor, and moldings. From this very luminous room with its large bay windows equipped with electric shutters, one accesses the terrace. Then opposite on this level, a living room or office of 12m² will offer you a cosy space, you will appreciate its oak parquet floor, and its beautiful openings benefiting from double glazing of great quality as everywhere on this level. The end of the corridor leads us to the 9m² kitchen, with granite worktops and credenza, note that all the appliances will be left at your disposal. Two beautiful and pleasant rooms of 12m² exposed to the south are both equipped with beautiful storage spaces.

Finally, a bathroom decorated with an Italian floor and an independent WC complete this level. The attic space of 35m² is accessed from the hallway, it has a sloping roof on one side, has openings and can be completely converted. Let us return to the half-basement now, from a door in the kitchen. A real bonus for this property, since it consists of a wide corridor leading to two bedrooms with a toilet area, a summer kitchen, a boiler room which houses the oil-fired boiler replaced 4 years ago and which has been used very little. Then, a...
