DESCRIPTION

In a lovely quaint village, between Bourg and Blaye, and within a 2 minute drive of amenities, this is a very attractive renovated stone house in very good condition. With around 220m² living space, it has lovely bright lounge around 26m² with fireplace and exposed stone wall, dining room around 25m² with fireplace, kitchen around 22m² with staircase leading to upstairs. There are 3 bedrooms on the ground floor (28, 22, 18m²), one with shower room, separate family bathroom 9m², wc, pool equipment room. One of the bedrooms leads to the lovely terrace area by the pool, perfect for an early morning cuppa!

Upstairs is a large open area around 60m² with beams, which already has electricity and radiators and could easily make more bedrooms if required.

There is also a large cellar 58m² which can be accessed from inside the house or from the outside, and is ideal as a laundry room and /or wine cellar.

Gas central heating, mains drainage, double glazing, roof in good condition.

Outside is a very pretty and enclosed garden around 1500m² with private salt water pool 10x6m and terrace. There is also a large parking area for cars.

Bordeaux and the airport are only around 45 minutes away, and the Atlantic coastline is easily accessible. The estuary town of Blaye with its citadel, shops and restaurants, and car ferry across to the Médoc is only 5 minutes by car. Perfect as a family home or lock up and leave second home.
