IN BRIEF

With an exceptional location in La Ciotat in what is considered the most beautiful bay in the world, in the heart of the famous shipyard in front of the unique "poudingue" cliffs of the Mugel cove, this restaurant is located on the upper level of an old warehouse on the quay and overlooks the port and the sea. I invite you to seize this rare opportunity and discover its unique Eiffel structure which will seduce you with its contemporary industrial style and its dominant wooden terrace which will give you the feeling of being on a ship. With a 285 m2 reception room with a current capacity of about 90 seats and a large terrace with walkways of about 400 m2 with a current capacity of about 90 seats, the establishment has a large capacity of 800 people maximum with access for disabled people and lift, allowing to widen its...

DESCRIPTION

On the catering side, the restaurant is equipped to a high standard with a kitchen with a central island, cold rooms, a goods lift and a large space for storage, staff and administrative spaces with a private access and suppliers on the ground floor

The restaurant's diversified clientele includes shipyard companies and international crew providing them with a high standard menu as well as workers, locals, and tourists for a more basic menu.

The internationally renown shipyard is in constant development and houses currently approximately 30 companies with 700 employees.

The business development perspective of the restaurant is excellent as the shipyard is going to expand with 3000 additional recruitments by 2023 and 9000 in total by 2026/2027.

There is also a landscape design project to convert the esplanade (where the biggest ships are docked) into a park.

20 year lease deadline in 2033

Rent : 8700 €/month Tax included and terrace included
