IN BRIEF

UNDER OFFER Situated between Miallet and St-Saud-Lacoussier, this old farmhouse exudes character and rustic charm. Several woodburning stoves contribute to the property's cosy and traditional atmosphere, while features such as original floorboards and wooden beams give a sense of history to the interior and will appeal to those seeking a traditional home. The hamlet location offers a tranquil and picturesque environment, away from the hustle and bustle of urban life. The private garden and orchard provide secluded outdoor spaces for relaxation, gardening, and enjoying nature. An outbuilding in the garden is the perfect space to develop studio accommodation for hosting guests or even as a rental space for additional income. In addition there is potential for expansion into the attic spaces of the property to achieve additional living space. An inviting and potentially idyllic country home.
