IN BRIEF

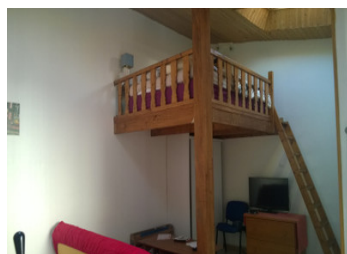

This ensemble of residential property has been let on an annual basis, and comprises four furnished studios and two unfurnished town houses. The studios make ideal student accommodation, due to the close proximity to the university, or equally for young professionals as close to the town centre. La Rochelle is very much in demand as a tourist destination, due to its vibrant cultural and social life, historic interest, sailing community, bars and restaurants. The town has excellent transport links, with it's own airport, and the property is 1km from the TGV railway station.
