NOTES

DESCRIPTION

In a village between Mugron and Tartas, this charming 187m² mansion to finish decorating on one floor with convertible attic is located on partly fenced land with a huge outbuilding of around 200m² with 5 rooms including currently a laundry room and a workshop equipped with three-phase (380V), then an open garage with pit for mechanics. The house is composed as follows: entrance on the garden side, facilitating the unloading of groceries giving into the dining room with its pellet stove, on the right the kitchen. A staircase to the 1st floor. A large hallway typical of these 19th century houses, one of the entrances to which has been added a shower room and WC. A bedroom and the living room complete this ground floor.

Upstairs 4 bedrooms, one of which is currently in office, to finish decorating as well as the long hallway with small balcony, 1 bathroom with walk-in shower, WC, 1 staircase to the top floor which can be fully converted.

The central heating by three-phase heat pump (380V) air / water, the insert pellet stove, double glazing, as well as the insulation of the walls and floor of the attic gives this property a very good energy ratio (B)
