DESCRIPTION

This new residence with heated swimming pool and private garden is built on a green hill located on the banks of the Rhône. Contemporary building with material of high nobility. Apartments with large openings and extend onto generous covered terraces offering beautiful views of the gardens.

Villeneuve lès-Avignon offers an ideal living environment under the sun of Provence. This lively and dynamic district also has several renowned schools within a ten-minute walk, as well as unique sports facilities, such as the authentic Tennis Club of the city, nestled in the heart of a century-old pine forest.

Lively throughout the year, it offers a rhythmic agenda between local markets and cultural events... Located on the banks of the Rhône, Villeneuve-lès Avignon has a privileged location at the gates of the major cities of the South of France. One hour to reach Marseille or Montpellier thanks to rail transport.

New build property in France represents an excellent opportunity for property investors due to the generous 20% of the property price Vat rebate that is available to those opting to rent out their property and also the reduced notary fees applicable to new-build.
