DESCRIPTION

Residence of 96 apartments distributed in 6 buildings. Each building has its elevator and staircase. The housing design provides maximum views and sunshine to future residents, with dual orientation apartments and corner living rooms. The architecture also enhances the diversity of framings on the landscape, near and far. In addition to the garden in the ground on the south side, generous loggias extend the interior space on the upper floors.

The architecture pays homage to the grazing light on the river Garonne.

The many glazed surfaces largely illuminate the interiors.

The accommodations are extended by large balconies or beautiful terraces open to the surrounding nature. A privilege to enjoy the views exceptional on the Parc aux Angéliques and the river Garonne.
