DESCRIPTION

Discover this new New York style residence on the right bank of the river Garonne. A true city within the city, Brazza provides for the development of multiple economic activities, cultural and sports facilities in a green setting designed for the well-being of its inhabitants. In the immediate vicinity of the Chaban-Delmas bridge, facing the future Cité des Civilisations du Vin and at the center of Bordeaux's sustainable development arc, the L'Atelier residence erects its facades inspired by New York buildings and offers through apartments. In a neighborhood sought after by young working people and families, the address promises great prospects for development.
