DESCRIPTION

This attractive village house is set on the main avenue named after Jean de Silhon who was born here. He was a French philosopher and politician and founding member Académie française in 1634.

On entering the property there is a good-sized living room (20 m²).

From here we reach a well-equipped kitchen with shuttered doors to the covered terrace and garden (900 m²).

To the left are the garage (24m²) and a downstairs toilet and shower room.

Wooden stairs lead to the landing with 4 good-sized bedrooms with plenty of storage space

Bedroom 1: 12 m² with balcony (7 m²) overlooking the garden and with lovely views.

Bedroom 2: also overlooking the garden: 13 m².

Bedroom 3: 18 m²

Bedroom 4: 15 m²

There is also an attic ready for conversion.

From the kitchen you can walk out to a lovely covered private terrace ideal for al fresco dining and out door entertaining.

The garden is fully enclosed and mainly set to lawn, matures trees and shrubs. There is an excellent opportunity here to add a swimming pool.

The house is double-glazed throughout and has oiled fired central heating.

In need of a refresh but in good condition throughout this property is priced to sell and would make an excellent opportunity to get a foothold in heart of Gascony.
