DESCRIPTION

Located on the fourth floor in an ancient building, within a small co-ownership, the flat has its own direct entrance at the rear of the building, on Rue Longue, which can be accessed also by car. This is very rare in the old town, where most flats are accessible only via staircases. Rue Longue is the backbone of the Old Town and originally a part of the ancient Roman road via Julia Augusta.

Within a few minutes of the flat, you will find a broad selection of restaurants offering French, Italian and Provençal cuisine as well as delicious seafood, from Michelin rated restaurants to simple pizzerias.

While located on the waterfront, in the heart of the colorful and vibrant old town of Menton, just a few steps away to the famous beach Plage des Sablettes and its Promenade, the apartment offers a quiet and peaceful home, where you can fall asleep lulled by the sound of the waves and wake up each day to a living painting of sun, sea and culture.

The well-known covered food market of Menton, the "Marché des Halles" originally built in 1898 and offering daily fresh produce of fish, meat, vegetables and flowers from local farmers, is only a 6 min walk away from the apartment, as well as shops, bakeries, supermarkets, pharmacies, cinema and all the amenities you will need for holiday or year-around living.

Living in this beautiful home you will enjoy the taste of life on...
