NOTES

DESCRIPTION

In more detail now, let's leave the main road and take this charming road that leads us to one of the 5 hamlets in the commune of Ferrières-Poussarou. And there's no doubt about it, we're immediately swept away by the Mediterranean climate - who hasn't dreamt of optimal sunshine, surrounded by holm oaks, chestnut trees and rocky massifs, with the famous Saint Chinian vineyards just a stone's throw away!

What could be more natural than wanting to share this little paradise? This is exactly what we've done, since this property is designed to welcome lovers of nature and tranquillity. At the end of the road, the property comes into view, charmed by its exposed stonework. First of all, the main house welcomes us with its vaulted entrance. We discover a marvel, a 78m2 living room of rare elegance, a perfect marriage of wood, travertine flooring, exposed stone, slate and wrought iron, all bathed in light thanks to the large windows opening onto the terrace to the rear. This atypical room is absolutely incredible, with a kitchen area tucked between the vaulted ceilings, a toilet area in the entrance hall and the living and dining room benefiting from the gentle warmth of a wood-burning stove in the large fireplace.

A highly original artistic staircase, combining wrought iron, iron and tiles, leads upstairs to 2 bedrooms and a bathroom with toilet. Another spiral staircase, also in iron, leads to another bedroom under the roof. A double...
