DESCRIPTION

Enter into a generous size reception room (17m2) with insert, tiled floor and a lovely wooden staircase leading to the first floor.

Off this room is the well appointed, light and airy kitchen / dining space (14.60m2) with tiled floor and large window. From this room there is easy access to the wine cellar.

From the other side of this room you enter another generous size reception room with stone floor, stone walls, beams and some lovely architectural features. This room also has independent access to the street.

A lovely wooden staircase takes you up to a generous size double bedroom (19m2) with sitting area and luxury en suite fitted shower room with WC.

The other staircase from the first reception room takes you up to a hallway where you will find another generous sized double bedroom (15m2) and tiled shower room with WC (5m2)

From this hallway, you have access to the pretty, paved roof terrace (12;20m2) With featured tiled wall and Abbey views, this is a lovely spot for morning coffee or evening drinks.

From here another staircase takes you up to a third double bedroom (18;50m2) with en suite fully tiled bathroom (6m2).

There is also access to a generous loft space (22.70m2). This room has both lighting and heating and double aspect windows. With some adapting, it could be a 4th bedroom.

Behind the house there is the entrance to another cellar and leafy garden area.
