NOTES

DESCRIPTION

At about a kilometre off the main road, and with only two discreet neighbours and no passing traffic, this property offers a true haven of peace.

The front door brings you immediately into the gorgeous kitchen (approx: 37m²) with beautiful fitted units and a gas hob and electric oven at the cooking end, space for a huge kitchen table in the middle of the room, and a woodburner at the other end which heats the radiators throughout the house. Despite its size this is a really cosy room and perfect for the way we live today. Off the kitchen and down some steps is another room (approx: 17m²) which could be a dining room if you feel the need for a separate dining room, but the current owners use it as a study. It has its own wood burner, beautiful exposed stone walls and french windows leading out to the summer kitchen and back garden. At the other end of the kitchen is the utility room (approx: 9m²) which currently houses the dishwasher, washing machine, drier and freezers and has another sink, so that if you are entertaining in the kitchen you can clear away the washing up to here so you won't be surrounded by mess! There is a separate cloakroom here (approx: 2m²) which has a loo, a small basin and space for hanging coats.

Behind this is the passageway (approx 7m²) which leads to the sitting room (approx: 19m²) and the...
