IN BRIEF

On the outskirts of a village, come and discover this property, a former coaching inn, in the maison de Maître style, with high ceilings and large windows. It has beautiful old parquet flooring, cement tiles, terracotta floor tiles, beams, a fireplace in each room and a magnificent old oak staircase. It also has a walled courtyard and outbuildings, and an adjoining walled garden. The large outbuildings can be used according to individual needs and desires and feature magnificent roof timbers. They could be used by a craftsman looking for storage space or as a guest house.
