IN BRIEF

Exceptional property comprising two dwellings restored to a very high standard using quality materials by renowned local craftsmen. Once you have passed the large wrought iron gate, you will be seduced by the large driveway and the attractively lawned adjoining grounds, which will take you to the foot of the main building, a stone house full of charm and character that has been perfectly maintained. An outbuilding used as a gallery and a second house complete this property, which would be perfect for future caretakers or friends passing through. The magnificent, stone-walled grounds, planted mainly with Mediterranean species, ensure that the estate is completely discreet, yet close to the village and all its amenities. This unique, serene estate in the heart of the Uzège region offers numerous possibilities: extension, commercial use (bed and breakfast), detachment of plots.
