IN BRIEF

Located in the Department of Aude in a pretty village on the Canal du Midi in the Minervois, you'll find this unique 19th-century mansion restored with a new roof, insulation, double glazing, solar panels and heat pump supplying underfloor heating/cooling, making it extremely economic with an energy rating of A! It maintains its characteristics such as the stone window casings, domed and turreted roofs, interior stone archways, and wooden beams. The highlights are a 34m2 room on the 2nd floor with an elaborate wooden domed ceiling, 7 ensuite bedrooms. Outside there is terrace, garage, and 2 parking spaces. There is also a well in the kitchen accessed via a metal covering in the floor. This astonishing property is perfect for a large family or an investor interested in running a Chambres d'Hôtes or Boutique Hotel in a highly touristic area.
