DESCRIPTION

The house itself consists of two rooms (14.5m² and 31.6m² approximately) and has been stripped right back to the bare walls. There is a front door and a back door with a small front garden.. It has a new roof which was installed in 2013 (approximately).

The plot is connected to mains water but not mains electricity at the moment.

It is situated in the middle of a small hamlet and will make a great renovation project for someone.
