NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The villa is located in the much sought after Les Collettes area, once home of the great painter August Renoir.

The stunning, uninterrupted 180 degrees south-west view of Sea, Mountains and Valley must be seen. The villa is situated within the private domain Les Grimaldines overlooking the medieval village Haut de Cagnes, Sea view of Baie des Anges and Ca d' Antibes.

The area is a valuable position near the beaches. The sea is just a 5 min drive or 15 min walk, 15 minutes by car to Nice airport. The medieval village of Haut de Cagnes area is fairly untouched by modern life, although you will find anything you need in Cagnes Sur Mer including one of the best covered Provençal farmers Markets of the Cote d' Azur.

With restaurant, casino, cinema, concerts and exhibitions, Cagnes Sur Mer offers a large choice of sports and cultural activities. The famous shopping mall Polygone Riviera is a 10 min drive.

The villa is divided into two sections on the main floor separating the living spaces from the four bedrooms providing great comfort.

On the main floor is the living spaces which flows easily into each other while providing a noiseless environment and peace in the bedrooms detached in it's own house with a connecting corridor. Sliding glass doors leads from the living room onto the pool terrace and garden.

Two of the bedrooms have access to covered terrasses overlooking the mountains and Haut de Cagnes. One bedroom is facing mountain view...
