IN BRIEF

This detached stone house is charming, set in a quiet corner with peaceful countryside views, a gorgeous sunny undisturbed corner with plenty of room to play or to sit and relax in. The entrance hall opens into the lounge with woodburner (and back boiler) on the right and the kitchen/dining room on the left, then leading off to a utility room & toilet. The back door is opposite the front door, opening onto your secluded, sheltered back garden, currently laid to easy-maintenance grass. Upstairs is the master bedroom with dressing room, two other bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom. Outside, there is a potential for conversion (subject to permission) of a courtyard and stone building. The hamlet has 2 other homes on the opposite side, this house has old stone buildings to one side of it and a stone barn converted to a garage currently but hardly used. The village...

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The main house has already been renovated upstairs (3 bedrooms, I bathroom with WC) while keeping the original charm downstairs (salon, cuisine salle à manger, buanderie avec WC). The roof was retiled in 2005/06 but the house probably needs a more modern septic tank. The property is in a quiet hamlet with only 2 other houses but with several old stone farm barns to give a rustic ambiance. It is a few minutes' drive from nearby villages and within 10/15 minutes drive of larger towns, under Ihr to Vannes and just over Ihr to Rennes. Ideal as a holiday home or with great potential for a family home in the countryside. Please get in touch to book your visit now and see this charming property in its attractive setting.
