DESCRIPTION

The ground floor welcomes you with a spacious hallway, cozy lounge, providing a welcoming space to relax and entertain. The adjacent kitchen is well-appointed. A convenient bedroom on this level adds to the flexibility of the floor plan.

Ascending the staircase to the upper level reveals three generously sized double bedrooms, providing ample accommodation for the entire family or visiting guests. A well-appointed shower room completes this level, ensuring comfort and convenience for daily routines.

One of the highlights of this property is its proximity to the popular lake in Callac, just a stone's throw away. Residents can enjoy leisurely walks, invigorating exercise sessions, or peaceful fishing outings amidst the serene natural surroundings.

Adding to the appeal, the basement of the house features a garage and utility room, providing additional storage space and practical amenities for modern living.

Overall, this Neo Breton house offers a wonderful opportunity to embrace the essence of countryside living in the heart of Callac. With its spacious interior, convenient layout, and proximity to outdoor amenities, it presents an ideal retreat for those seeking a harmonious balance of comfort and nature.
