DESCRIPTION

A lovely village centre property comprising a sous-sol type house with attached garden. Total plot area of 1820m².

The house, built in 1969, has been in the same family to this day. It is in very good condition - the roof is good with no leaks and there are no structural issues. The interior is dated yet there is no question about functionality - everything has been well looked after/ maintained and works correctly. Windows are single glazed and there is a mains drains connection.

Entering through the main door takes you into an entrance hallway (7.5m²) and corridor (14m²) beyond that connects all the rooms. On the left is the large kitchen (14.5m²) with an open fireplace and enough space for a small breakfast table. On the right is a large room (35m²) that is a combined dining room/ salon with insert wood burner and large glazed doors that open on to a terrace overlooking the front garden.

Continuing to the corridor, there are a number of doors which lead to the four bedrooms (16.5m², 12.5m², 13m² and 15m²), bathroom (6m²), separate WC (2.5m²), office (11.5m²) as well a staircase leading to the sous-sol level.

The bedrooms are a good size and have large windows which let in plenty of natural light. Two of them have washbasins hidden in cupboards. The office could continue to be used as such or made into a fifth bedroom. The bathroom has both a bath...
