DESCRIPTION

After having been a much loved family home for nearly 40 years, this aesthetically beautiful property, full of original features and architectural flair, is a blank canvas for its new owners.

Above a sous-sol comprising garage, wine cellar, work shop and operational well, the double front doors open into a large tiled entrance hallway with high double doors leading left and right to a dining room with marble fireplace and large family room respectively. The family room is in fact two interconnecting rooms so this light and spacious space has views to the front and back though the architect-designed feature window and patios doors. This opens to steps to the back garden. The front part of this open space has a fireplace and the back part a fire insert.

In the dining room, as with most of the ground and first floor, the original intricate cornicing and ceiling rose remains, along with the marble fireplace and the oak flooring. A door leads to the kitchen which has dated wooden but functional fitted wall and floor units, with integral hob, deep fat fryer and cooker hood. A window looks over the garden. The light floods in with a 2.9m ceiling height on this floor.

In a small rear hall there is a WC, hand wash basin, access to the cellar and back garden and the wooden staircase.

On the first floor there is a front bedroom and a...
