IN BRIEF

This cute cottage is in need of renovation. It does however have the huge advantage of being on mains drains. Situated in a charming village. Outside there is a courtyard garden with some outbuildings, one of which used to house a bread oven. When renovated/refreshed, this characterful cottage will be a great property.

DESCRIPTION

Ground floor. Front door leading into entrance hall. There is a good size sitting room with fireplace a dining room, kitchen with some units and a sink, W.C. There is also a door leading out to the back.

On the first floor, there are two large bedrooms, one of which is reached via the other, as is the bathroom. The bathroom does have new W.C, shower, bath and hand basin but the ceiling plaster has come down.

Outside there is a courtyard garden with some outbuildings, one of which used to house a bread oven.

When renovated, this characterful cottage will be a great property.

Situated in a small village with a shop, bar/restaurant, all within walking distance, between two pretty little market towns, Aigurande which is 12.5kms approx and Bonnat which is approx 12 kms.

A project which could give you a lovely cottage style property
