DESCRIPTION

A long tree lined private driveway leads you to the gardens which completely surround the chateau.

Through the main entrance you will find a grand staircase and immediately in front of you are double doors to a morning room(16m²) with original tiled floors and wooden beams. From the morning room you have access to the terrace, the fully fitted kitchen(24m²) and the dining room(32m²) with original fireplace. The lounge(36m²) also with original fireplace can be found via a double entrance from the dining room and boasts double doors onto the garden. Down the corridor from the entrance hall you will find a separate wc, boiler room/utility room and store room which also has access to the garden.

On the first floor you arrive at a large landing from which you can access the east and west wing. The East wing has a large luxury bathroom and three beautiful bedrooms all with original features. The West wing comprises the Master bedroom (35m²) with ensuite bathroom and another large interconnected bedroom(25m²).

The château has been fully restored to preserve the original features and comes fully furnished. The gardens have been very well maintained and have a formal section, a vegetable plot, a natural drinkable well/fountain, a formal fountain and two terraced areas.

All this and even walkable distance to the town centre of Nontron. This property is less than 80kms from the nearest airport in Limoges and less than 50kms from Angouleme which...
