NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The property is approached through double gates which leads to a driveway with plenty of parking. As soon as you arrive you can take in the views of the garden and open country views beyond.

The main house has two bedrooms and benefits from gas central heating. There is ample room to extend in the attic to create additional rooms if required.

The second house also has two bedrooms and a large living space. There is just the kitchen left to install. This would make a great gite, easily accessible with good transport links.
