DESCRIPTION

You really are purchasing A LOT of property here for your money. The layout is as follows: Arrive into the totally enclosed garden, with gravelled area, built in flower beds, double garage, parking area, and access to workshop. The main house. Entrance is through the sets of double doors, into spacious lobby area. Off of here there are three bedrooms, 1 with en-suite shower, the master with adjoining door into main family bathroom, and then a smaller bedroom which could double up as a study. Along the corridor to the 'open-plan' yet cunningly divided into - lounge, dining room and kitchen - this room is lovely. Doors lead from here onto the private patio area. The two apartments: To access, there is an external staircase to the side of the property. They are both more or less the same, with the exception of one having access to the 'grenier' space, which extends across the whole of the building. Each has a lobby, good sized lounge, hallway leading to shower room and w.c, 2 good size bedrooms, and kitchen/dining rooms. Also, on this level there is a decked roof terrace, which can be shared by both apartments. Whether you are looking to 'retire' to France, but would like the added bonus of an income, or you and your extended family are looking to move, and all wish to be together....the list of options goes on. This truly is a RARE property. As for the location,...
